*John

and William
Sittard*

*. . . And one man in his time plays many parts, His acts being seven ages.
At first the infant, Mewling and puking in the nurse's arms.*

*And then the whining schoolboy,
With his satchel
And shining morning face, creeping like snail Unwillingly to school.*

*And then the lover, Sighing like furnace,
With a woeful ballad Made to his mistress' eyebrow*

*Then a soldier, Full of strange oathes, and bearded like the pard;
Jealous in honour, sudden and quick in quarrel, Seeking the bubble reputation Even in the cannon's mouth.*

*And then the justice,
In fair round belly with good capon lined,
With eyes severe and beard of formal cut, Full of wise saws and modern instances;
And so he plays his part.*

*The sixth age shifts
Into the lean and slipper'd pantaloon, With spectacles on nose and pouch on side;
His youthful hose, well saved, a world too wide
For his shrunk shank; and his big manly voice, Turning again towards childish treble, pipes
And whistles in his sound.*

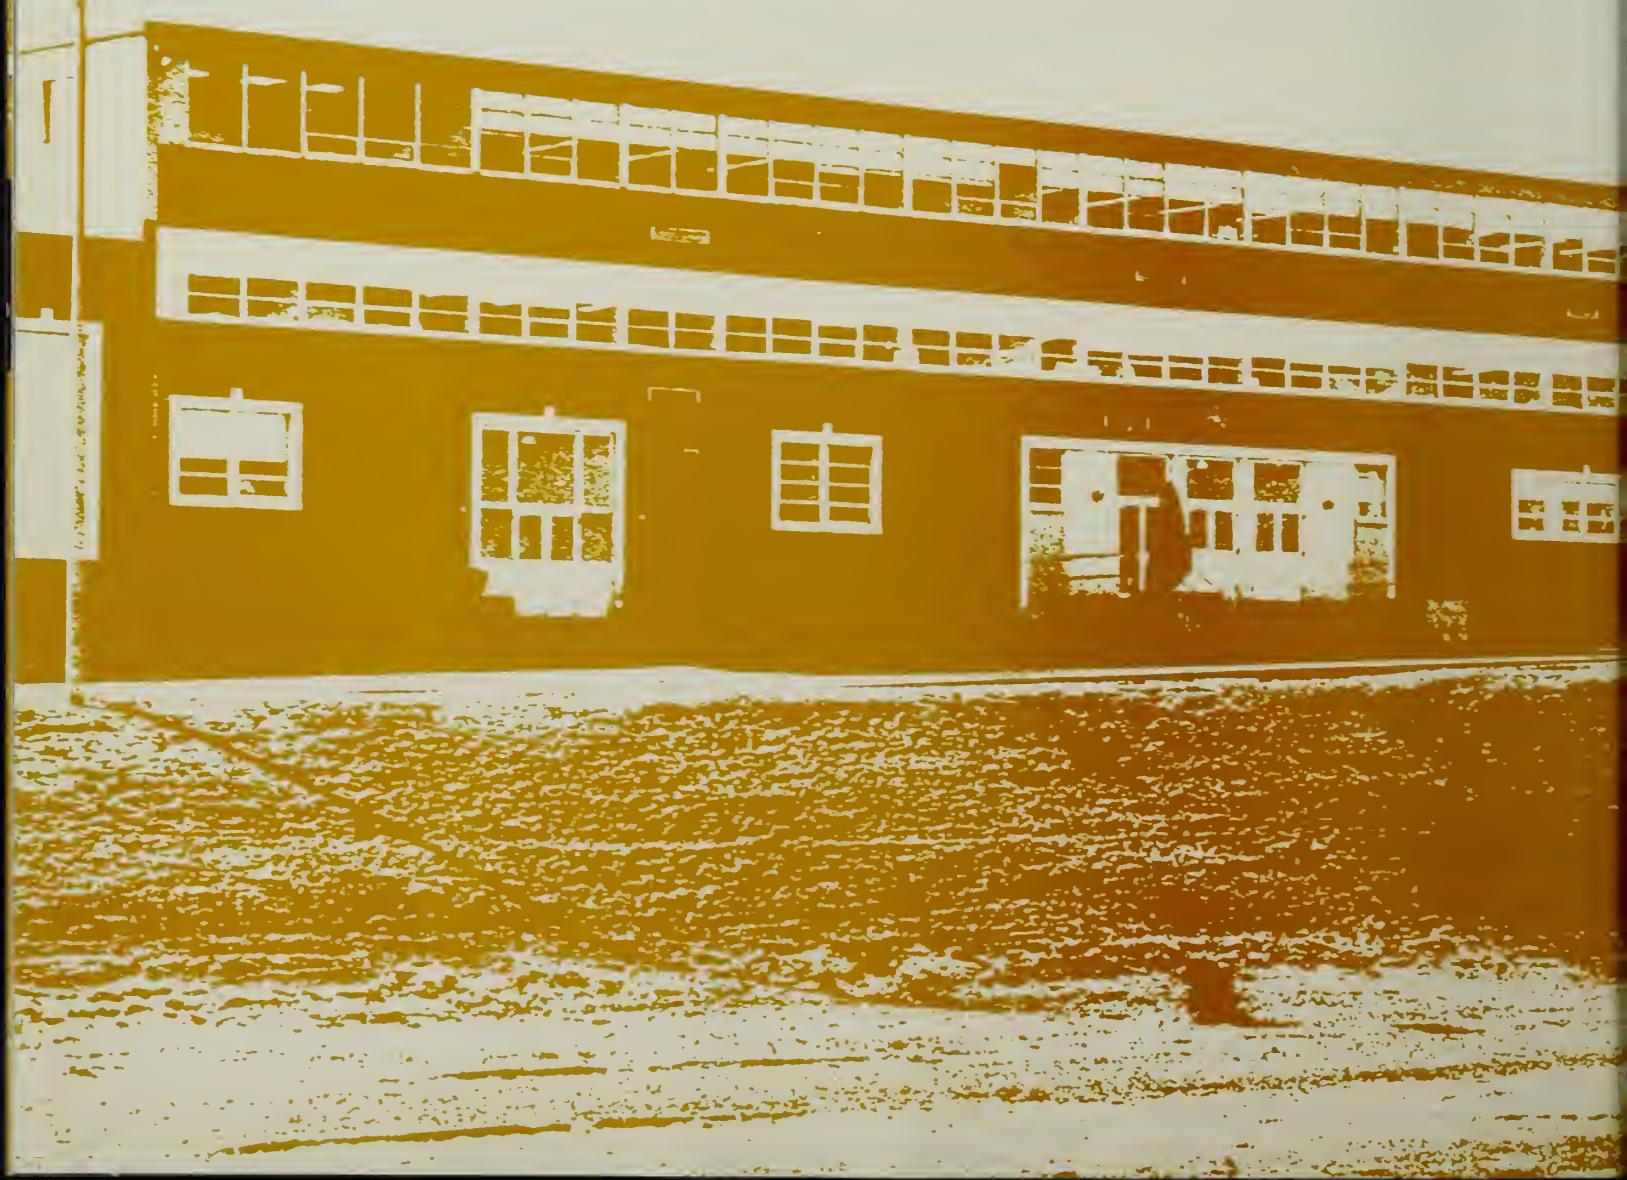

*Last scene of all,
That ends this eventful history In second childishness, and mere oblivion,
sans teeth,
sans eyes,
sans everything.*

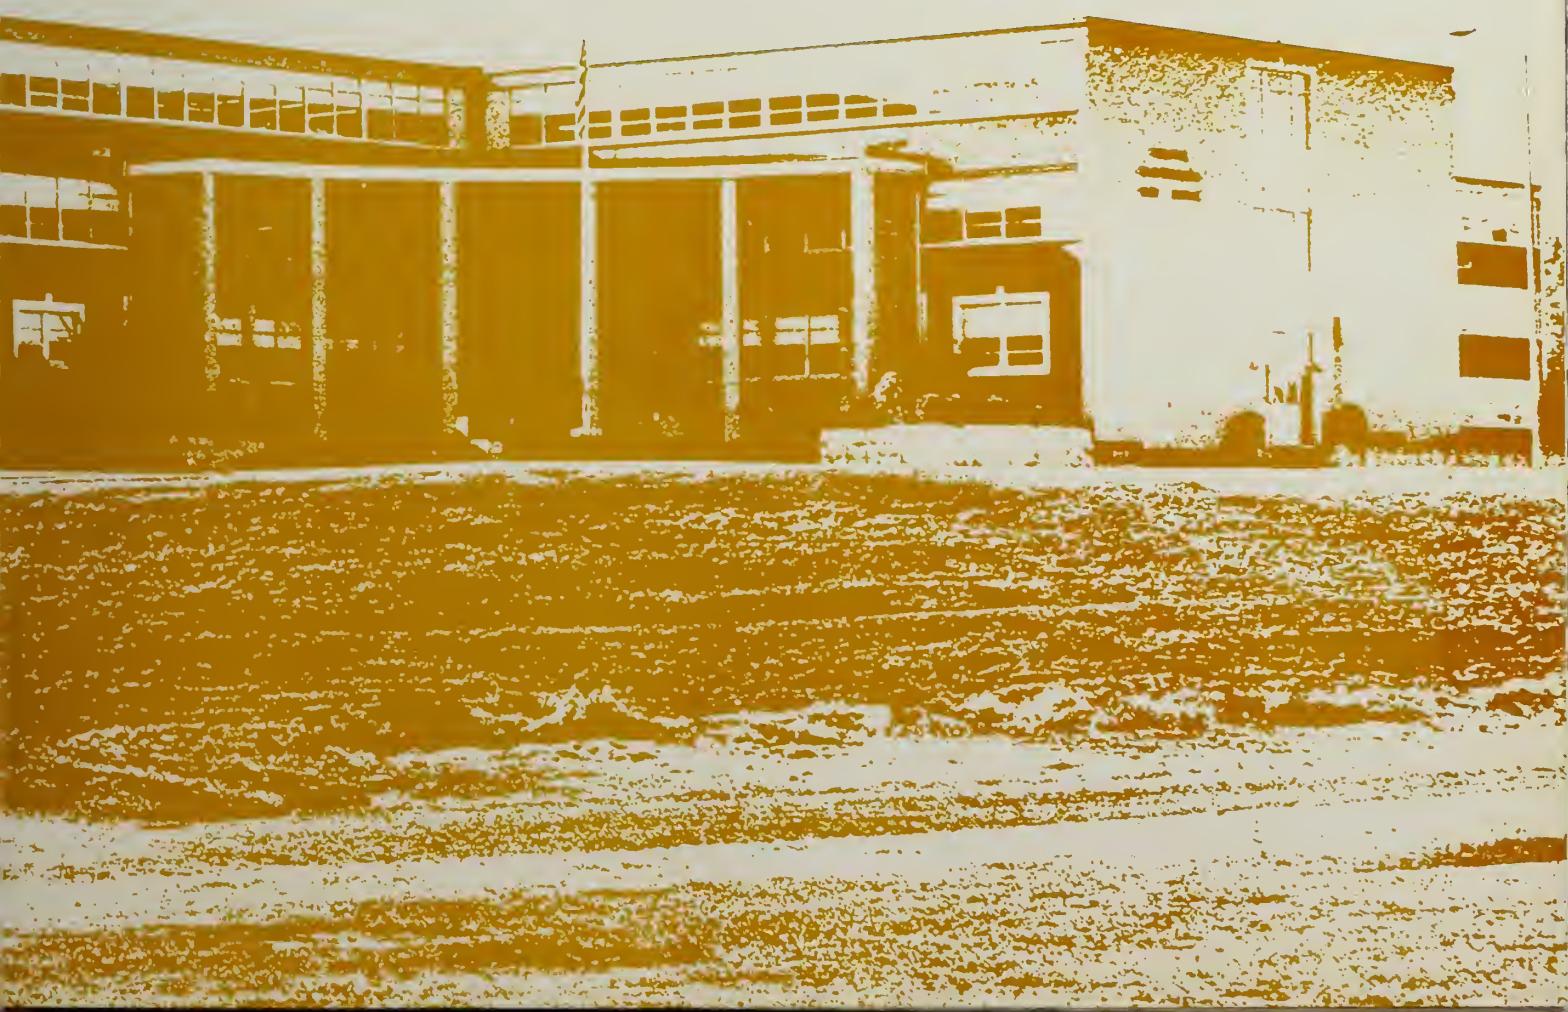

As You Like It
Act II
William Shakespeare

*The vision that you glorify in your mind,
The ideal that you enthrone in your heart – This you will build your life by,
This you will become.*

Freedom is blind, for it sees only trees & trees are free tree. And those who are free the slaves to freedom, but this is good because it is free. It is a creed, a religion, to die and live for it is free sacredness they fight for it, unless they fight for it.

Bodies are instruments, seeking to build as they have built them, and still bear children, a sound and erect churches, a sound and simple becomes somewhat we, we have erected becomes in the future. we young to be a hand touches the fingers Another hand, and slowly grasps it between beckoning fingers, clasping it in warm palms, its grip is warming, firm, solid, unyielding. The hands stand distantly, each tendon straining, the veins stand out like purple mountains, The grasp their hands together, and smile. They have done it.

They have put their hands together.

Among the screaming silence of a school student walls in of a small student walls the quiet steps him. He wears the frown that society gave him looks heavy responsibility, the bears the burden of loneliness with our futures of loneliness why

Something has let down. The spirit is broken for a while. The bitter-sweet scent of revenge stings the mouth. Questions come quickly, the pain-stung questions that drag your hands inside your pockets, hand puts the smile within the shut-paled face while lonely walks a seem the answer. I never time gets up upon its feet, and all world has a smile upon its fingers, has smile is finding no lonely places, to most sorrow and time. These are the times and happiness tastes so much better.

Although our last year at Comprehensive was filled with many pleasant memories, there would have been a definite void without our athletes. These people worked to the best of their abilities to bring pride to the entire school through sportsmanship and truly great effort as teams. All these teams have succeeded in reaching this goal by playing each game cleanly and in the manner of true athletes. For this we owe them a debt that is insurmountable. Unfortunately, all we have to repay these selfless sportsmen and women with is our thanks.

We can't help but look back at this year and note the full membership of the Class of 1971 has made an indelible mark at Chicopee Comprehensive High School.

Seniors showed themselves to be a well-rounded group and certainly a credit to themselves as well as to the school.

It isn't very often an entire group of young adults coming from all walks of life is able to meld itself into a spirited flock of individuals, able to bear the fruit of understanding and accomplishment both academically and socially.

The Senior Class contributed greatly to the school's growth in all areas of endeavor. They gave freely of themselves and displayed a well-rounded quality of adulthood despite the turbulent times.

They made it a happy year for us, one we will long cherish. Our sincere wishes go to the members of the Senior Class that their future may be bountiful in whatever road they travel. We know they will go out into the world much better people, not only for what Chicopee Comprehensive High School has offered them, but also for what they gave to the school to make this a bright and outstanding year.

The Hoot!

We never lock doors at comp . . . ?!

We would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to many people without whose help the publication of Memini 71 would not have been possible. First we thank Mrs. Rachel Shumway for not only guiding us but for coping with us. A great deal of gratitude is extended to Mr. Robert Grenier for his undying patience and most valuable advice. To Mr. Don Lendry, Representative of the American Yearbook Company, we also extend thanks. A special acknowledgement goes to Mr. Jan Lessin for helping us out of many problems and also to all those who patronized Memini. Finally we, the 1971 yearbook staff of Chicopee Comprehensive High School would like to thank the International Finagle Factor (otherwise known as manipulating) for making the publication of this book possible.

Farewell

“. . . And there did seem in him a kind of joy . . .”

“. . . There are more things in heaven and earth Horatio, than are dreamt of in our philosophy . . .”

“. . . Suit the action to the word, the word to the action . . .”

“. . . The play's the thing . . .”

“. . . For they [actors] are the abstracts and brief chronicles of the times . . .”

O good Horatio! what a wounded name. Things standing thus unknown, shall live behind me! If thou didst ever hold me in thy heart, Absent thee from felicity awhile, And in this harsh world draw thy breath in pain, To tell my story.

Good night, sweet prince, And flights of angels sing thee to thy rest!
